

Youth Conservation Leadership Conference

Cheyenne Mountain Zoo Hosted By CMZ Youth Leadership Action Board

Conference Dates: July 21st – July 23rd (optional evening program on July 20th)

The Details

What: 5th Annual Youth Conservation Leadership Conference 2023

When: July 21st – July 23rd (optional evening program on July 20th)

Where: Cheyenne Mountain Zoo, Colorado Springs, CO

REGISTRATION IS OPEN

Early Bird Price: $245.75 per teen (March 1st - April 15th)

Regular Price: $285.75 per teen (April 16th – July 10th)

Chaperones can purchase timed tickets online if they chose to visit the Zoo on their own*

Starlight Safari Tour Price: $40 per person. We will provide dinner, animal meet and greets, a private tour, and giraffe feeding. Families welcome to join their teens this evening. Program runs Thursday, July 20, from 5:30pm-8:30pm

Included: All sessions/speakers, animal behind the scenes, animal meet and greets, gift bags, reusable cups, conference shirt, lunches

Eligibility and Requirements

Any middle and high school students from around the world!

Any questions, contact our Conference Hosts, Austin and Russell at teenprograms@cmzoo.org

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- ➔ Hear from speakers about conservation, networking, animal training, and so much more
- ➔ Work with your peers to approach conservation with a more critical eye
- ➔ Become an active steward of the environment by learning how to work with animals, people, and peers
- ➔ Gain leadership, interpretation and public speaking skills
- ➔ Strengthen your connection to the wild world and the animals that call it home

